Subject: 22nd CISM World Military Championships Triathlon (Long Distance) "Titan Soldier" Championship 2021

Date: 04/01/2021

The international Military Sports Council (CISM) has entrusted the organization of the 22nd CISM World Military Championships Triathlon (Long Distance) to the Spanish Armed Forces.

It is my great honour to invite a team representing your country to participate in the 22nd CISM World Military Championships Triathlon (Long Distance) "TITAN SOLDIER" Championship, Spain 2021, which will take place in Lanzarote (Canary Islands), from May 18th to 24th, 2021, during the Lanzarote Ironman Triathlon. The competition will be held on the island of Lanzarote, and is one of the toughest events on the international circuit. Athletes from all over the world come to the Canary Islands to take part in this race. In addition, this race offers 40 qualifying slots to the 2020 IRONMAN World Championship in Kailua-Kona, Hawaii.

The following guidelines have been issued by CISM Spain using the collective feedback of different stakeholders in the sport of triathlon and after review by the World Triathlon Technical Committee and World Technical Committee. The guidelines will be updated continuously according to the latest information from the World Health Organization and the research/ publications that are released on this topic.

Also consider that the event will look different to what we all are used to, as some of the measures will have an impact on how the event looks like. Here are the measures that will affect:

- Pre-travel Health Checks for all personal Staff will be held to ensure exclusion of those with potential additional risks.
- PCR test could be requested by regional authorities on the arrival to Lanzarote. Anyway a Pre-event medical Test (Antigen) for COVID 19 will be mandatory. It will be done by CISM Spain medical service. In case a positive Test, the athlete will not be allowed to participate in WMC. CISM Spain will send a COVID report one week before PA and FE expiring dates.
- Temperature checks will be done for accessing the venue, and no access will be allowed to anyone with high temperature, or symptoms of COVID.
- Face mask mandatory fulltime but competition and training. Chief of mission/ Team Manager Face mask mandatory fulltime.
- CISM Spain will not facilitate any interviews with athletes before or after the event, so that athletes don't have to be in close contact with any external media personnel. Athletes can do it at their discretion, preferably in open air spaces.
- Due to COVID restrictions, Opening and Closing Ceremonies will be reduced to the minimal nation representatives.
- In case of symptoms suggestive of acute respiratory illness before, during or after travel, the athletes are encouraged to seek medical attention and share travel history with CISM Spain.
- Individual Responsibility:
 - Participants should aim to keep at least two metres distance from other people.
 - Frequent hand washing by participants using soap and hot water or alcohol-based (at least 65-70%) hand rub for 20 seconds.
 - Avoid shaking hands or hugging.

- Avoid steam rooms or sauna.
- Athletes racing in a triathlon event must monitor their health status continuously (including taking their temperature and monitoring for any symptoms) from 14 days before and during the event.

ANNEX 2b

FINAL ENTRY - COMMITMENT BY THE CHIEF OF MISSION

NATION :

The undersigned, Chief of Mission declare that he has read the CISM Regulations and moreover understood the following prescriptions:

Article 1.10. RIGHTS OF MEMBER NATIONS

- A. Active member nations have the right to:
Be invited to all CISM Championships.
- B. Inactive member nations have the same rights as active member nations except that:
They do not participate in any CISM event until they have met their financial obligations.

An inactive nation, intending to take part in the event must pay its annual fee before the deadline established by the Organizing Committee of the world military championship for sending the final entry. If it is not done, the delegation will not be able to take part in the event.

Article 7.23. PARTICIPATION - MILITARY STATUS

- A. Only military personnel on active duty in Armed Forces may take part in competitions organized by CISM.
- B. No one may be recalled to active duty in the Armed Forces for the purpose of participating in a CISM competition. In the case of an intermittent military service, the athletes regularly recalled may not take part in CISM competitions, under any circumstances, if more than 18 months have elapsed between this recall and the end of their last call to arms.
- C. Exceptions to the above may be authorized by the General Assembly, upon recommendation of the Board of Directors.
- D. All military participants in a CISM event shall be in possession of proper documentation which signifies active military service of the member nation he represents. The documentation can be:
 - 1. A valid military identity card for those athletes who are authorized to present their military identity cards abroad,
 - 2. A form of verification (in English and/or French) of military status accompanied by a passport.
- E. By signing the final entry, the Chief of Delegation confirms the military status of the participating athletes. If there are last minute changes in the participation of the athletes, the verification file may be signed by the Chief of Mission, but shall be confirmed by the Chief of Delegation by official letter.

F. If one of these documents is not available, participation is refused.

G. An athlete who has represented one country in CISM competitions (World Military Championship, World Games, World Winter Games, continental and regional championship), in the Olympic Games, or in any competition at world, continental or regional level recognized by the relevant IF, and who has changed his/her nationality or acquired a new nationality, may participate in CISM competitions representing his/her new country provided that at least two years have passed since the competitor last represented his/her former country.

Article 7.32. CHIEF OF MISSION

A. Chief of Mission

1. Chiefs of Mission shall be familiar with CISM regulations.
2. Missions must not only participate or be present at sports events, they are also required to participate in information conferences on CISM, study days, commemorative and cultural events and ceremonies organized by the host nation.

B. Conduct of a mission

1. The Chief of Mission is responsible for the behavior of his team in sports and general discipline. He shall ensure that members of his mission respect the rules and directives prescribed by CISM and organizers of the championship. The respect of schedules is particularly important as they form the basis for the effective conduct of competitions and ceremonies.

2. The Chief of Mission shall also enforce the rules concerning behavior and dress during the ceremonies. He plays an important role in promoting the CISM spirit among his mission, a spirit represented by friendly attitude towards other missions, courtesy towards organizers and fair-play in competition.

Article 8.6. ABSENCE OF A MISSION WITHOUT NOTIFICATION

If a mission which submits a preliminary agreement and/or final entry is absent without notifying the host nation in time, a sanction will be imposed (CISM Regulations, Art. 1.12).

Article 8.17. RULES OF STAY

A. General

1. The Chiefs of Mission are responsible for the discipline of their mission. The missions fall under the jurisdiction of the organizing nation. During events, all athletes present on the playing fields are equal before the jury, the referees and to themselves. No one may use his rank to impose his views on sports matters.

2. Civilian members of the missions shall conform to the discipline accepted by all other participants.

B. Military uniforms

1. Unless otherwise approved by the Official CISM Representative, all participants shall wear military uniform during official ceremonies such as the opening and closing ceremonies and medal-awarding ceremonies. Individuals without proper uniform will not be allowed to participate in the championship.

2. The presentation of medals takes place, in principle, during the closing ceremony. The presentation of medals may be done in sports uniform, if for organizational reasons it is not possible to wear military uniforms. This is the case e.g. when the presentation immediately follows a championship sports event. Sports uniforms shall respect the corresponding national criteria (training suit, sports shoes, etc.) Displaying the national flag on the podium by the recipient (athlete or team) at a medal awarding ceremony is forbidden. Individuals failing to respect these prescriptions shall not receive their medal(s) during the official ceremonies.

C. Forbidden actions

1. In conformity with the statutes and traditions of CISM, any political or religious propaganda during a CISM event, in particular the dissemination of documents, pictures, brochures, reviews, etc. is strictly forbidden.

2. Any contravention shall result in the exclusion of the mission from further competition and may result in additional sanctions (Regulations Art. 1.12).

Article 8.19. ACCOMODATIONS

E. All missions, including those of the host nation, shall be accommodated under the same conditions. If the conditions are in accordance with the CISM norms and standards, the missions are expected to accept the accommodation provided by the organizing nation.

G. (...) Any mission that does not accept the accommodations provided by the organizing nation and judged as adequate by the Official CISM Representative will not be allowed to participate in the championship.

EXTRA DAYS ACCOMODATIONS

Any cost before the due arrival date or after departure date including additional person's expenses must be covered by the participants.
